The Answer Is "Vodka"
The Booming South
Von Huenefeld's Story
A. P. Sloan Is Cheerful

BY ARTHUR BRISBANE

Celebrating Easter in Moscow, 1,500 were arrested. Some started with vodka, and drinking kerosene, and fighting at Easter parties. Others, at the helplessness in the streets, fell into the hands of the police.

The czar abolished vodka, then the Russian, sober and thinking clearly, finished him. Now vodka comes back. The Soviet realizes that, to rule, it is best to discourage drinking in the past.

THE South is energetic and growing. Governor Smith of New York is well selecting North Carolina for his golf holiday. He is studying one of the most amazingly progressive states in the Union.

These five men, northbound from Marion, got off the train at Asheville, N. C., the other day to pay their respects to the governor: Judge Oliver, Surgeon James F. Foley, Bernard P. Gumbel, George Le Boulthier, president of the Long Island Railroad, and Arthur Farn, all of New York.

THEY all agree that North Carolina is a good place for the South and American business generally.

"The whole state," said B. F. Gillingham, "seems so closely built up as the gap between New York and Philadelphia."

The Cannon Towel Mill, biggest on earth, employs 5,000 men and women. The well-known B. V. D. gentlemen, and the great Chicago firm of Marshall Field, have enormous manufacturing plants in North Carolina. Other manufacturing institutions spring up daily.

The state has water power practically unlimited, at low cost, an energetic working population and extremely good living conditions.

Don't overlook North Carolina in your plans.

THE story of the westward flight across the Atlantic, told by Baron Von Huenefeld, will be read today with intense interest. Those that go down to the sea in ships will note that if the German airboat had not been most powerfully built, the three passengers would probably have been killed when they landed on the ice-covered pond.

PRESIDENT ALFRED P. SLOAN, Jr., of General Motors is not exactly discouraged about the automobile situation. His company in March, 1928, sold 35,011 more cars than in March, 1927, a gain of 22.2 per cent. And March broke all records for all time. Total sales 197,821 cars.

Mr. Sloan expects General Motors to break this record in April, usually a better month than March. There is nothing the matter with this country but its prosperity. Nothing to frighten us, except our own foolishness.

"MAN'S best friend," the dog, occasionally gets mixed in his loyalty. Mrs. James McCormick, the widow of a man who died in the war, was told by a policeman that the dog was the man's best friend. When the policeman escorted the woman to the apartment, Dillon's dog, who had been with him on the ship, bit Mrs. McCormick on both legs and then rested. A "police dog" would have done the job more thoroughly, but Mr. Dillon's dog did as well as it could. There wasn't anybody else to bite.

CHINA announces a competition for prizes, for the best Chinese poem, open to all Chinese. A hymn is wanted for the Kuomintang, and an anthem to honor the Chinese revolution. How would you like such a hymn or anthem?

Nothing will be produced, strange as it may seem, but as inspiring to the Chinese as the "Marseillaise."

The Brown Daily Herald tells that of Brown University "Drunk and drunkenness at the university and events on the campus have all been hushed." Brown's social prestige, it is said, is being ruined. What's worse, drink and liquor will kill the Brown gentlemen's mucous membrane.

THAT is not exactly what prohibition was expected to produce. Government hasn't the faintest chance of producing anything, the better back of the opinion, or at least public opinion, back of them.

WHEN our present peace was still young, J. Ogden Armour said, "I don't want profits." Why, Armour made less than $25,000,000 last year. When I, think of Carnegie, Rockefeller and others that have realized that I feel like a gypsy.

THEY you read that Armour's wife and daughter take from their estate a fortune $10,000,000 to pay the estate of Mr. Armour who died last year.

"Take care how you get into the hands of short finance," said Mr. Armour shortly before he died. "You will be millions from me and had me no way to the cleaners before I knew where I was."

Here are the 12 contestants who will take part in the district finals of the National Oratorical Contest at the Star Auditorium Friday night. One hundred and fifty dollars in prizes will be awarded to the winners, while the first prize winner also will win the honor of representing this district in the state contest at Canton April 27.

The contest Friday night will commence at 8 o'clock. The public is invited. There will be no admission charge. Upper row of contestants are left to right: Vernon Bushong

GALLOWS TAKES BIRGER'S LIFE

"Scourge of Egypt" Pays for Murder of West City, Ill., Mayor

Denton, Ill., April 19.—Charlie Birger, "Scourge of Egypt," went to his death on the gallows here at 9:51 a. m. today for the murder of Mayor Joe Adams of West City, Ill.

Birger was led from his cell at 9:45 o'clock. He walked the short distance to the gallows unassisted and once upon the wooden structure, waved his hands to the vast throng that had gathered to see the "Scourge" in his last minutes on earth.

State's Attorney Roy Martin and Sheriff James Pritchard approached him and said a few words. Birger assumed an air of gaiety which the strain in his face belied.

Not once during the long night had Birger closed his eyes.

When dawn came he was asked if he wished anything to eat.

"Yeah," drawled the gangster general. "Yeah, gimme a couple ounces of carbolic acid."

When it came time to lead him to the gallows Birger as if with a great effort drew himself into a semblance of composure. He waived assistance in walking up the scaffold steps.

The noose was adjusted about his neck and the execution robe was fastened about his small, lean body.

The trap was sprung at 9:51 and he was pronounced dead at 9:58 o'clock.

WHEN YOU WERE 82—

And I was Sweet 62; and Off to the Altar

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Proof that "in the spring a young man's fancy" was demonstrated here today, when Winfield F. Works, 81, resident of the Presbyterian Home for the Aged, led Mrs. Gertrude Isabelle Travis, 62, assistant superintendent of the home, to the marriage license bureau to transact certain business there.

Not caring for long engagements, the happy couple will be married immediately.

DENOMINATIONS ARE RELIGIOUS BARRIERS

Speaker Says Churches of World Could Outlaw Future Wars

Columbus, April 19.—"Denominational affiliations are positive barriers to the spread of Christianity," Lee Sadler, of Richmond, Va., said this morning in the key-note address before some 3,000 people who are attending the international convention of the Disciples of Christ being held here this week.

Sadler said that the churches of the world could outlaw war if they would forget denominational lines.

Discussion over a recommendation to move the offices of the organization from St. Louis where they are now located to Indianapolis is expected to feature this afternoon's business session. Adherents to the Indianapolis movement point out that in Indiana the society would be exempt from taxes.

Election of officers to the United District Order will also be held at this afternoon's session.

NEW YORK YANKEES GIVEN FIRST DEFEAT OF SEASON

Fenway Park, Boston, April 19.—For the first time this season the New York Yankees went down to defeat today.

A Patriots' Day holiday crowd saw the Red Sox come through to a 7 to 6 victory.

Boston batters got pepped up in the eighth, slugging out two singles, a double and a triple by Regan.

SLAYS BROTHER-IN-LAW WHEN BARRED FROM HOME

New York, April 19.—Warten Hamilton, a state trooper, shot and killed Chester Dalton, 19, his brother-in-law, at Dalton's home in South Woodhaven early today, according to police.

Police said Dalton had refused to let Hamilton into the home to see Mrs. Hamilton from whom the trooper was separated two months ago.

Fliers Determined to Go On to New York in Bremen, Baron Von Huenefeld Says

First Word of German's Plans Received by Radio and Dog Sledge from Greenely Island; New Parts for Plane on Way

BULLETIN

Detroit, April 19.—Preparations were being rushed at the Ford Airport today to fit out a Ford trimotored transport plane to carry replacements and fuel for the disabled Bremen at Greenely Bay, Labrador.

Floyd Bennett and Bernt Balchen, chief pilots of Commander Richard E. Byrd's proposed expedition to the South Pole, arrived here from New York yesterday to pilot the ship.

The plane is expected to be in readiness to take off tomorrow, it was said.

Clark City, Que., April 19.—The first definite and official information as to the plans of Baron Von Huenefeld and Capt. Hermann Koehl of the German transatlantic plane Bremen was received here today by radio and dog sledge from Greenely Island where the famous ship landed.

Baron Von Huenefeld, in a statement to International News Service, revealed that the fliers are still determined to reach New York in the Bremen.

"After the arrival of Aviator Charles A. 'Duke' Schiller at Greenely Island it was determined that Max James E. Fitzmaurice should fly back to Murray Bay with Schiller for replacement parts so that the Bremen could be repaired," said the Baron.

"We decided to repair the undercarriage and put a new propeller on the plane and then the three of us would continue our flight to Mitchell Field."

GOES FOR EQUIPMENT

"Fitzmaurice did not desert us. There was no misunderstanding. He merely returned to civilization from our lonely outpost to get spare parts for the machine," Captain Koehl, Dr. Louis Cuisinier and the mechanic of the Schiller plane decided to remain here at Greenely Island with Max Fitzmaurice hopped off from Murray Bay. I hope that Fitzmaurice will be back this evening or tomorrow. I think the repairs can be made in a day so that we may be able to hop off on Saturday."

The Baron said that the last half of the journey was made under such frightful conditions that nothing could be seen. He sat in the back of the plane while Koehl and Fitzmaurice took turns at the controls. He slept at intervals and in his waking moments tried to write poetry.

"It was Fitzmaurice who first conceived the idea," said the Baron. "He told Koehl and we set off to see if we could get any response." The Baron said they had not yet received any response.

DEMOCRATS ARRANGE FIRST MEETING HERE

Martin L. Davey, Candidate for Governor, To Speak April 30

With Congressman Martin L. Davey of Kent as the principal speaker, Marion County Democrats will have the opening of their campaign on April 30, it was announced today by F. E. Campbell, member of the County Democratic Executive committee. Davey announced his candidacy for governor recently.

A meeting of representatives of the various Democratic organizations of the county is being held this afternoon for the purpose of outlining a definite program for the meeting. Tentative plans which have been discussed would provide for three addresses by Congressman Davey here during the day.

A talk to the school children on tree life in the afternoon to be followed by a political address to the members of the Marion County Women's Democratic Club later in the afternoon and concluding with a banquet meeting in the evening is the program being considered.

LIGHT VOTE SEEN

Brown's Estimate of Ballots To Be Cast Is 600,000 to 700,000

COLUMBUS, April 19.—That from 600,000 to 700,000 Ohioans will cast their votes next Tuesday in the Buckeye State's presidential preference primaries was the estimate voiced today by Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown, head of the state's election machinery.

Records at the secretary of state's office indicate that there are more than 2,000,000 voters in Ohio. These records, also, disclose that only 346,840 Ohioans voted at the presidential primaries in 1920 and but 305,119 in 1924.

TOBIAS ELEVATOR DESTROYED BY FIRE

Loss of Between $12,000 and $15,000 Partly Covered by Insurance

The large grain elevator owned by Ed Himla, E. E. Lykins and Irvin Monette, at Tobias, was completely destroyed by fire which started about midnight last night. The loss is estimated at between $12,000 and $15,000 and is only partly covered by insurance. Insurance men are at work today repairing telephone and telegraph connections which were severed when the fire was discovered preventing any call for outside assistance.

CAUSE UNKNOWN

Origin of the fire, which is believed to have started in the office of the elevator, is unknown, as Mr. Monette, manager of the place nor none of the employees were at the building during the day.

Section men of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. watched the fire, which burned until about noon today, in order to prevent the blaze from spreading to the railroad property or other buildings near the place.

INVESTIGATION OF COUNTY WORKHOUSE UNDER WAY

Columbus, April 19.—Complying with instructions from Gov. Vio Donahay, I. E. Bauman, assistant state health director, and S. C. Griffin, investigator of the Division of Charities, State Welfare Department, were at Canton today conducting an investigation relative to charges that conditions at the Stark County Workhouse were unsanitary and that prisoners were improperly treated.

The governor's office made public a letter to the governors from Welfare Director John Harper who stated that "our investigator reports that no other workhouse in Ohio is in such bad condition, from a moral and sanitary viewpoint, as the Stark County Workhouse."

QUQUA DITCH DISPUTE ENDS

Damage Claims Reduced to $5,000; Contract Letting Set for May 19

After obtaining a reduction of compensation and damage claims from $25,000 to $5,000, the Board of County Commissioners yesterday afternoon set the date for awarding the contract for the Ququa ditch improvement.

Bids will be opened and the contract let at 10 o'clock on the morning of May 19, commissioners stated today.

Final settlement of claims presented by interested property owners was reached at a hearing which lasted all day yesterday. Original claims for damages, filed at a former hearing, were more than the estimated cost of the improvement.

The estimate of the cost of the ditch as placed by the county surveyor, Cecil R. Levens, is $20,071.72, including a branch to the main ditch, which was petitioned for by the Vernon Heights Realty Co.

EXTENDS TO RIVER

The main ditch will start at the west border of the Vernon Heights Realty "Turn to Page 5"

TWO YOUTHS KILLED UNDER FALLING WALL

Ten Injured Are Rescued from Debris by Teachers and Children

Chicago, April 19.—Two boys were killed and 10 injured here today when a seven-foot wall surrounding the boys' yard at a public school, collapsed without warning and buried them beneath brick and mortar.

The dead are Stanley Kunk, 7, and an unidentified boy.

The ten injured were rushed to hospitals. Some of them may die, physicians stated.

The boys were playing in the yard waiting for the opening of school when the wall collapsed. Other children and teachers rushed to free them from the debris.

COMMITTEE IS EXPECTED TO PIGEONHOLE PROTESTS

Washington, April 19.—The D. A. H. "blacklist" fight was sidetracked today. Mrs. Alfred J. Broseaux, president general, ruled that protest resolutions prepared by the Kansas "insurgent" delegation could not be brought to the floor without first being considered by the resolutions committee. The committee, controlled by the administration, is expected to pigeonhole them.

OIL MAGNATE NOT PLACED ON WITNESS STAND

No Reason Given for Last-Minute Decision to Not Have Him Testify

FALL DEPOSITION OUT

First Claim That Money Was Borrowed from McLean Is Cause

Washington, April 19.—The defense rested suddenly in the criminal conspiracy trial of Harry F. Sinclair today without putting the oil man on the witness stand as expected.

The defense also failed to place in evidence of $50,000 ward deposition it took from former Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall, who is charged with conspiracy with Sinclair in connection with the leasing of Teapot Dome.

No reason was ascribed for the last-minute decision to keep Sinclair off the stand. The deposition was ignored, most of the lawyers concerned agreed, because in the cross-examination of Fall it had been developed that he had to a Senate committee about a $100,000 loan he got from E. L. Doherty, while the committee the money was borrowed from E. H. McLean, Washington publisher.

Explains Transaction

The defense closed with an explanation of a $25,000 transaction between Sinclair and Fall. This was apart from the $250,000 that the government charges was a bribe to Fall.

As finally unfolded, Sinclair gave J. W. Zevy, his attorney, $25,000 in Liberty Bonds in May, 1926. The lawyer turned the bonds over to Fall and got $25,000 back in return.

In the meantime, Fall went to Russia for Sinclair, getting $10,000 "expenses." The note remained unpaid.

Then, in 1925, after Fall said Sinclair had been indicted, Fall rendered a bill of $25,000 for "professional services" to Sinclair in connection with the 1925 Russian trip.

The checks thus received were cashed and taken to Zevy, who, on Nov. 23, 1925, surrendered the note. Two days later, Zevy gave his own check for $25,000 to Sinclair.

FREEZING WEATHER DUE HERE TONIGHT

Cold Wave To Call Halt on Spring Housecleaning; Forecast Indicates

Golf addicts, garden makers and fishermen got a severe setback today when the weatherman announced that a 20-degree drop in temperature was due for tonight. The mercury is expected to descend to the freezing point.

The cold wave is reported to be riding into Ohio on the wings of a high wind from the northwest and is expected to arrive late tonight. At present the storm which is predicted to take the sunshine out of April will be coursing through Michigan and the northern Mississippi Valley.

Order Delayed

Husbands who were scheduled to take their daily dozen poundings last winter's accumulation of dust out of the parlor rug may wish to wait for the remainder of the week, as the cold snap is scheduled to last until Saturday.

Next week, however, housecleaning activities are expected to resume normally as warmer weather will follow the passing of the cold wave.

The health and home editor, while not an avowed enemy of the bespattered husband, hands him a terrible disappointment by suggesting to housewives that the cold and dreary days offer excellent opportunities for wall-paper cleaning.

The statement of fruit raisers that the season this year is at least ten days behind schedule is borne out by part by a comparison of the high temperature yesterday with that of a year ago. Yesterday the mercury mounted to 67, one of the highest temperatures of the year, while the high for the same day a year ago was 74. The lows were 47 for yesterday and 55 for a year ago.

FRANCE WINS

European Roadster Cup Honors When Connecting Rods Break on Stairs

Indianapolis, April 19.—The French built Hispano-Suiza roadster won the 24-hour international speed match at the Indianapolis Speedway here today when the American entry, a Buick Black Hawk, broke two connecting rods and left the race.

Another French car was entered to complete the 24-hour run but the 230,000 yards has gone to Charles Weymann, noted Paris body builder who, with F. E. Montevic, president of the Stutz Motor Car Co. that Buick's fastest stock car could outrun America's speedster motor vehicle. The race will end at 1 p. m. today.

Clever Tactics Are Used by Men Working Forgery Game Here; Checks Mount to 20

System Employed in Operations at Local Stores Indicates Skillful Planning; Police Seek Trail of Pair

With three additional checks for $31.00 each reported to the police yesterday, the 17 forgeries passed on Marion merchants over the week-end grew to 20. As was the case with the 17 reported on Tuesday, the latest checks were made payable to Carl Brown and carried the forged signature of William F. Forrest, proprietor of the Forrest Machine Shop.

Interesting and varied but always smoothly carried out were the methods used by the forger and his accomplice, according to the merchants on whom the checks had been passed.

A shoe dealer who was a victim, in describing the methods worked by the forger, said he was in his store yesterday afternoon when he was approached by a stranger who, thrusting out his hand and with his face wreathed in friendly smiles, declared he had not seen him for a long time and inquired after the condition of his health.

Returning greeting

Thinking perhaps the stranger was some one he had met and forgotten, the merchant returned the friendly greeting. While the visitor engaged in joking out a pair of shoes, a second stranger came in and walking up to the first man, extended his hand and after a few minutes' conversation, asked where he was working. He replied that he was employed at the Forrest Machine Shop on N. State-st.

Thrown completely off of his guard by the apparent friendliness of the two men and especially after the first had said he was working at the Forrest Machine Shop, the merchant did not hesitate to cash the check when offered.

Florists were also included among the victims. At one of the florist stores, the forger ordered a wreath for a friend who had died at his home on Bennett-st. and asked that it be delivered Monday morning. The check, for $31.00, was readily accepted by the florist and when the wreath was delivered Monday no trace was found of the "dead friend."

Tells of "Accident"

At another floral store the man said he had accidentally struck a little girl, while driving his machine the night before, and while she was not seriously hurt he was desirous of sending flowers to her at her home on Park-st. The flowers were selected but he asked that they be delivered on Monday morning, the explanation being that friends had given her flowers Saturday and he wanted her to have fresh flowers on Monday. The check for $31.00 was produced and duly cashed but when the flowers were delivered on Monday morning, no injured girl was found at the address.

Similar methods were used at all places where checks were offered, indicating that the forgers were not of the common variety.

Meager descriptions given the police by the various victims are being checked with other cities in an effort to apprehend the forgers.

Manicurists of Manila are complaining that tips are very scarce and very small.

BIG LEGION MEET PLANNED AT LIMA

Local World War Veterans To Be Represented at District Event

Members of Bird-McIntosh Post of the American Legion are planning the annual spring banquet of the Legion to be held in Lima, April 26. The meeting will be attended by veterans of the World War from 22 northwestern Ohio counties.

Chaplain Wilson is one of the outstanding leaders of the Legion. He flew with the Lafayette Escadrille before America entered the war.

The dinner will be served in Memorial Hall, Lima, Wednesday night. George Denny of Middletown, Ohio, commander of the Legion, and J. J. Malachuk, Columbus, adjutant, will speak. Others who will attend are Minnie Warner, of Toledo, national executive committee member; Frazier Heuser, Toledo, northwest district chairman; and Ralph Cole of Findlay, former congressman, who will be the toastmaster.

The boys' band of 30 pieces from the Xenia home for children of veterans, will play.

FARM BUREAU MEETS

Roland Leeper Addresses Group on Cooperative Marketing

Prospect, April 10—The Prospect Township Farm Bureau met Tuesday night at the school building, with 50 members and several visitors present. The meeting was in charge of the vice president, C. V. Almsdinger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Behrens and Mr. and Mrs. John Lauer. Roland Leeper, of Marion, gave an address on "Cooperative Marketing" and a short talk on "Automobile Insurance."

Marion County Boy Furnishes This Year's Seed Supply to Champion Corn Grower

IF Ira Marshall, Hardin County's world champion corn grower, succeeds in making two stalks of corn grow where but one grew before and thereby sets a new record this year, he will owe much of his success to the care and patience taken by a Marion County boy.

For three years the Hardin County corn grower has held the world's record and this year he will attempt to surpass his largest yield of 168.4 bushels per acre by using certified Claxton seed corn grown by Walter Disbennett of five miles south of Marion on R. F. D. No. 7.

Marshall recently purchased seven bushels of the seed corn from the 18-year-old farm youth and is making plans for the sowing of his 1934 crop as soon as weather conditions permit.

Is Kenton Graduate
Young Disbennett is a former Hardin County boy having graduated from Kenton High School. At Kenton he was enrolled in the Vocational Agriculture Department of the school, receiving training in the most practical and up-to-date methods of farming under the instruction of E. R. Tam and W. M. Stuart, heads of the department.

After graduation he moved with his parents to their present home south of Marion, where he started the growing of certified Claxton seed corn with splendid results. According to tests completed at Kenton and by the Ohio Seed Improvement Association his corn is rated among the best grown in Ohio this year.

Many orders for this seed have been received from counties in Ohio and Indiana. It is adapted to the short growing season of this locality.

List of Requirements
In order to produce certified seed corn it must meet with the requirements of the Ohio Seed Improvement Association as follows:

Certified seed must be used to plant the field; no other variety of corn shall be grown within 50 rods of the field; corn must be free from disease, early maturing, of good quality and produce a good yield; selected from the field before frost; inspected twice by a specialist from the Ohio Seed Improvement Association, once growing in the field and again after being placed in storage; the corn shall germinate not less than 90 per cent and shall contain not more than 20 percent moisture.

Three more tracts of land have been added to the area being set aside in Marion County for state game refuge. Leases for the tracts were recorded in the county recorder's office by O. H. Neimeyer, deputy state game warden, yesterday.

Two hundred and thirty-nine acres of land located in Pleasant Township are included in the three leases. Owners of the tracts and the number of acres in each are:

Mrs. Katherine Court, 159; Charles Leo Almdinger, 24; and Orville F. Barnhart, 55.75.

Approximately 5,000 acres are to be set aside in Marion County as game refuges. The largest refuge will be located in Pleasant Township.

Urbana Committee Member Backs Warner's Campaign for Honest Election Count

Deaton Threatens To Ask for Action Against Any Perpetrators of Law Violations in Tuesday's Primary

Columbus, April 19—Offering his cooperation to Fred W. Warner, chairman of the Republican state central committee who yesterday demanded that the primary elections in Lucas, Cuyahoga and Hamilton counties be free of fraud and deception.

Warner, chairman of the Republican state central committee, today threatened to call a meeting of the state committee to bring to justice the perpetrators of law violations in Tuesday's election.

"If the statutes are inadequate then I, for one, will aid in drafting such legislation to put a stop to these crimes against the ballot," Deaton declared. "The security as a self-governing people rests upon the purity of the ballot," the Urbana man said. Referring to the outcome of the elections, Deaton said he should be heartened by the fact that Warner's demand was put on an end to corrupt election practices in the state.

Appeals to Sheriff

An appeal to the sheriff to see that the primary elections be held in a fair and honest manner was made yesterday by C. O. Starnell, city manager of Cincinnati, by Warner.

"You, doubtless, have noticed in the public press a statement I used referring to the frauds that may be expected in Cuyahoga, Hamilton and Lucas counties," Warner wrote Starnell. "This is a serious situation and one that affects the goodness of the result and jeopardizes Cincinnati."

"In the past, your city, as well as many others throughout the country, has been imposed upon by commercial politicians who tampered with elections and participated in wholesale frauds," continued Warner.

PREDICTS NEW OFFER FROM GAS COMPANY

Publicity Agent Says Counter-Proposal Is Likely at Fremont

Columbus, April 19—With this as the last day for the Logan Gas Co. to sign the new Fremont gas ordinance, passed last month, E. M. Tharp, the company's publicity representative, today expressed the belief that a counter-proposal would be offered this afternoon. The hearing period, fixed by law, in which the gas company may accept or reject a new rate ordinance will expire Thursday at midnight. Tharp pointed out, and the fact that the company has delayed this long in signing the ordinance indicates that it will ask Fremont city officials to consider another measure.

Proposed Rate

The rate set up in Fremont's new ordinance is $1 for the first 500 cubic feet and 50 cents per thousand thereafter. Tharp pointed out that this rate is cheaper for people using more than 1,000 cubic feet of gas than the present rate.

The filing of a rate schedule with the State Utilities Commission, in case the company agrees to the new ordinance, is a mere routine, Tharp said, and signing the ordinance makes it a contract between the company and the city of Fremont which only a referendum vote by Fremont citizens can render void.

KONJOLA WAS A BLESSING TO HIS HEALTH, HE SAYS

"My Kidneys Were In a Serious Condition," He Declares.

MR. EDGAR EDWARDS

Konjola has proven vastly more effective in thousands of cases of ill health than any previously known remedy. This is because it cleanses the system of old toxic poisons through the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and then stimulates and invigorates these organs to a more healthy, normal action.

Mr. Edgar Edwards, 365 Windsor St., Akron, Ohio, made the following statement about this new medicine in his own case:

"I was never able to find another medicine to give me new strength and build up my system like Konjola," said Mr. Edwards. "For months I had been in constant misery from stomach trouble. Everything I ate disagreed with me and I was always suffering with dull headaches. Also, my kidneys were in a severe condition. My legs were tired and weak and I had severe pains in my back. I got Konjola and it acted on my liver and bowels right away. It cured all those stomach troubles within two weeks time and now my kidneys were acting natural again. Yes, Konjola was a blessing to my health and I want to endorse it."

Konjola is different than any other kidney remedy in this section. It contains twenty-two juices extracted from natural plants which invigorate the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, to a new healthy action. The effect of Konjola on the entire system brings amazing relief in cases of suffering that had been going on for years. At the same time many weak and rundown systems have been restored to a new state of health through this compound. Such a vast number of men and women in this city have told of their experience with the new medical product until now Konjola is the most highly indorsed medicine that is known in this vicinity.

Konjola is strongly recommended from Marion at Stump & Sons Pharmacy and is also being sold by all the best druggists in all town throughout the section.—Adv.

The BIG FOUR keeps your dollar working

The dollar you spend for a BIG FOUR ticket or freight shipment speedily runs on to buy the things we must have to give you this transportation service.

Take the average figures for the year 1927, for example. This is the way we made use of your dollar:

The biggest part, about 42 cents, went to BIG FOUR employees.

Another big slice, 27 cents, was used to buy coal, materials, etc.

Taxes, interest and rents took about 15 cents.

Miscellaneous items, including damage claims, took nearly 7 cents. About 5 cents was laid aside for improvements on the property.

The owners or stockholders received out of the dollar a little less than 4 1/2 cents.

The BIG FOUR dollar never stops working.

Fire Protection

There are two ways in which you can protect yourself against loss as a result of fire. Reduce to a minimum the possibilities of fire on your property and carry adequate fire insurance against loss if a fire occurs. The rest is up to the Fire Department.

We can give you practical advice on Fire Prevention principles and methods—and insurance policies of known dependability.

The Observatory of Paris announces the discovery of a new comet, but with both the big leagues going our interest is purely academic.

A Brooklyn man who left his home, one evening back in 1922, to buy a package of cigarettes and has just returned certainly doesn't smoke a very popular brand.

It would be interesting to know how much acreage is covered by options taken on land which will reap benefit in the event that the food bill becomes a law.

Heavy earthquakes were reported the same day from Peru, Chile, Brazil, Mexico and Hungary. Old Mother Earth must have taken something which didn't agree with her.

There's a movement on to restore titles up in Canada. This should prove welcome news to the so-called Americans of the same brand as those who have been going over to Europe to buy theirs.

Statistics for the year ended March 31, show the actual revenue from all kinds of taxation in Germany exceeded the estimates by about $7,500,000. It's just possible that Mr. Dawes did a little better job of figuring than some of his critics have credited him with having done.

This is Be-Kind-to-Animals week, but there's little chance that a week thus set apart will have much effect on a man—or a woman or child, for that matter—who isn't naturally kind to animals.

Those who gambled at Monte Carlo, a big proportion of them being Americans, lost in the aggregate 154,000 francs last year, and we are glad they did. They should have done their gambling at home, and kept the money in circulation here.

Captain George Fried, of the America, reports that his vessel was off the Grand Banks at the time the Bremen was nearing them, and that all day long the wind was blowing a gale. As the days pass, the mystery of how the Junkers plane was ever able to reach Greencastle becomes the greater.

"If there is anything that will carry you further," says Dorothy Dix, "than always saying just the right thing, in the right way, in the right place, I do not know what it is." But, Dorothy, why bring the matter up? So few of us carry transportation like that, that it can't possibly be generally interesting.

A Marion Woman Honored.

This newspaper naturally extends its congratulations to Mrs. William N. Harder as a result of her election to the presidency of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs. We have long been interested in this organization as well as the many women's organizations from which it takes its membership. Now that a local woman is at the head of it, our interest is intensified.

Some years ago it was the rather general practice of the jokesmiths of the press and rostrum to poke fun at the women's clubs, but they have not attempted as many jokes at the expense of club women in recent years. We do not believe the change has been brought about by the manner in which humorous reference to them has been received by the club women. As a matter of fact, if the club women have resented humor at their expense, they have been wonderfully clever in concealing their resentment.

We rather believe the explanation of the change is that today there is general recognition of the worth of the work the club women of the state, to say nothing of that of the club women of the land, have been doing. They have been working faithfully and well to better the physical surroundings of women, to cause them to take a wider outlook on life, to ease their work and to interest them generally in the higher and better things of life. And hence it is that when a Marion woman is elevated to the chief position in a state organization which has been in large measure responsible not only for the betterment worked, but also for the change in sentiment which has been brought about in the public mind by recognition of that betterment, it is a most decided honor—an honor alike to her and to the city which is her home.

Harding Memorial Boulevard.

The board of county commissioners awarded the contract for the paving of the Memorial boulevard with asphalt, and a plan was adopted to meet with the approval of the great majority of our taxpayers. The people of the nation contributed a fund which made possible the erection of a memorial to the nation's first president. The Memorial facing upon the highway between the boulevard and the Marion Delaware road. Under these circumstances, it is fitting that the surroundings of and approach to the memorial should be in keeping with the character of the highway. It is also the approach from the Vernon road over the Vernon highway, which as it has been this year, is the approach to the Memorial. The Memorial is a temporary structure, and it is the duty of the county commissioners to see that the approach to the Memorial is in keeping with the character of the highway. The approach to the Memorial is a temporary structure, and it is the duty of the county commissioners to see that the approach to the Memorial is in keeping with the character of the highway. The approach to the Memorial is a temporary structure, and it is the duty of the county commissioners to see that the approach to the Memorial is in keeping with the character of the highway.

Recently we came to a statement by a member of the road commission of a neighboring state to the effect that a highway should be constructed with regard to the volume and kind of traffic which it is to carry. We are of the opinion that it would have gone further and said that it should be considered also of the purpose for which a highway is constructed. As the county commissioners had some idea of this in mind in the case under discussion. With a park surrounded boulevard facing one end of the Memorial highway, with a cemetery on each side of it and the other end running to a subdivision laid out for a residence that section in which there is a light chance—probably none at all—of an industry ever being housed, they do doubt took into consideration and figured on the quiet and appearance of the highway as well as the volume and kind of traffic to pass over it. Located as it is, there is little likelihood that the boulevard will be used for freight vehicles, which left the one question of volume of traffic. If traffic over the boulevard should be light, asphalt would hardly be a suitable material, for asphalt must have usage to keep it in condition, but located as the boulevard is, it is very probable that it will carry more than we will call for want of a better term motor pleasure vehicle traffic than any thoroughfare in our city with the possible exception, if any, of our center street after that thoroughfare has been conditioned.

Thus, having considered the kind and volume of traffic, the surroundings, the matter of appearance, the matter of noise and the immediate purpose of the highway, the commissioners selected asphalt as the material, and, under all the circumstances, we believe the selection was a very good one.

Although the two officers of lesser rank mixed up in the trouble on the British warship, Royal Oak, simply will be transferred to other commands, the rear admiral in the case has been retired. Evidently he possesses too much of an artistic temperament, in the view of the British admiralty, to be of high value in the active list.

The name of one probable reason why the League of nations will not take any drastic action over the shipping of those two carloads of machine guns from Italy with Poland as their marked destination is Mussolini.

Secretary Mellon says the first he knew about it was when he heard that he was going to retire from politics at the end of the present administration. It is beginning to be manifest that the secretary is something of a killjoy to the politicians who have been unable to use him.

The Actors' Equity association is harboring a movement to drive all foreign actors off the American stage, George Arliss, counselor for the association, among them. To a man on the fence, the American stage isn't any too good as it is, and it might be made a heap sight worse.

The United States liner, America, is back from her first round trip since she was reconditioned, having come through storms which held up many of the larger ships and docked on time. Manifestly, she still retains at least one of the qualities which made her the most popular liner in the North Atlantic service.

While the flood bill ostensibly is to safeguard lowlands along the Mississippi and some of its tributaries from damage by floods, it has some of the earmarks of a measure designed to drive a tunnel into the United States treasury.

Commenting on the fact that the chief city boiler inspector up there is to be presented a car purchased by the tax-payers, the Chicago Herald and Examiner claims that the Windy City has expended almost $100,000 since last April for private cars for public servants. That paper's unaccountable. How can it expect public servants to expend all the money for which they hold up the tax-payers for the public good?

A Halo of Loveliness

By Edna Wallace Hopper

The most flattering frame for your face is your hair. It is up to you to bring out the healthy glow and the enriching softness that bloom with your features. Keep your hair clean. Shampoo it once a week. That is necessary. But it must be more than clean. It must be radiant. That is what my Fruity Shampoo does for your hair.

It is the only shampoo that ever has satisfied me. I use it at least once a week and the thousands of people who see me on the stage know that my hair glows with a scintillating luster.

You can get my Fruity Shampoo at any toilet counter. The price is 50 cents.—Ad.

"YELLOW MASK"

Don't let that Yellowish Tinge on your Teeth Deny You Beauty! This New Way Brings Glorious Whiteness Quickly—Try It!

ALL tooth enamel is ivory white—yours, too.

That yellowness comes from a "liquid cement" in your saliva, which glues to your teeth—then hardens. Forms a glassy envelope over the enamel. Food, tobacco and coffee stain it yellow. Ordinary dentifrices give no aid—they gloss, right over this "Yellow Mask."

But there is a special, non-gritty substance that banishes this beauty blight swiftly. Foremost dentists use it for cleaning difficult-to-whiten teeth and putting high polish on them. Can't harm the most delicate enamel. This substance is known as "Tri-Calcium Phosphate." The beauty miracles it works are amazing.

Now dental science has succeeded in composing a pleasant, tasty tooth paste of this magic "Tri-Calcium Phosphate," which means that the whitening powers of this material are now yours for everyday use. And that unsightly "Yellow Mask" can't now be banished!

The name of this remarkable dentifrice is ORPHOS TOOTH PASTE. No tooth paste has had so great a reception. Dentists everywhere endorse it. Noted movie stars have adopted it. Women and men testify to beauty effects that are a revelation.

We want you to try this magic ORPHOS. It's different. Doesn't foam and froth, but oh! how it whitens and polishes! Get your first tube today. Don't wait. If you don't say it is the finest cleaning tooth paste you ever used, return the unused part of the tube to your druggist and get your money back.

Not Fair
The camera isn't fair. It has caught the lovely features of Ethel Allen, but missed her captivating vivacity, the rose-petal color of her skin and the rich beauty and gleam of her dark brown hair. "So many people tell me about my hair, nowadays," says Miss Allen, whose New York City home is the Embassy Hotel, "that I know what they're going to say when I see them looking at me. 'What a lovely little hair! Like so many of my friends here in New York. I just get a few dashes of Danderine on my hair each time I use it. That gives it new sparkle and life to my hair. It keeps it soft and easy to arrange and I hold it in place. I was so tired with dandruff before I started using Danderine but it's all gone now. The application makes my scalp feel so grand. And it keeps my hair so clean I don't need to shampoo half as often as I used to.'"

Danderine does more to bring out the natural color, the gleam and life of your hair than any shampoo or treatment. It removes all dandruff and oily film from your hair—gets rid of it and keeps your scalp—gets rid of it. Look for Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper so you'll get the genuine.—Ad.

active and resting comfortably. "A week of rest and good care and some picnic food on your burns will put you right, Baldy," Monica told him. "I suppose you'll lose a little hide here and there and the hair will grow in white—you'll be a bit speckled when you take the road again, Baldy, but I don't suppose Sheriff Bentley will mind. About 8 o'clock the glow in the sky had almost disappeared, and Monica, watching the line of figures west of Bogus, was certain the fire had been held in leash. Where it had had a good start it had continued to burn, but it had not been able to extend itself appreciably in the direction of the meadow. Monica had high hope that the lookout station on Bogus had been spared; her worry over Bob Mason and Uncle Charley Canfield was practically over.

A half-hour later she heard the sound of a horse galloping across the meadows, and presently a horseman rode into the circle of light cast by her fire. "Is that you, Monica Dale?" he called. "Yes, who are you?" "Garland."

"Oh, Tony, I was never so glad to see anybody in all my life! How did you know I was here? I thought you were miles away, fighting the fire."

Jubilee's Pardner

A Story of Boyhood Adventure

BY JUDD M. LEWIS

Thursday. And tomorrow is Friday, and then Saturday, and maybe we will go out and dig some oysters.

When I had left Jubilee down by the rope in his tooth and had done my work and came into breakfast, my grandfather was asking my mother for some cotton to put on the ankle of my game leg where I had scratched my mosquito bites with my mother's nail file. He said he let her was going to get infection in it and lose his leg, and my aunt said he couldn't be losing much. My grandfather said he would be losing more than she would if she should lose both of her legs. He said if his legs didn't help the scenery any more than her's did he would throw them away. My Aunt was coming toward my grandfather with a bottle of some red stuff to put on his legs when he said that

Love's Embers

A Sequel to "Revelations of a Wife"

BY ADELE GARRISON

Philip Given Made a Hint of His Love

AT my command that I might be the Queen of Transylvania, my employer sprang to his feet, his face flushed to a brown out of all proportion to the jesting remark I had made. I called the stories I had read of the aristocrats which characterized the royal house of Rapenburg, whose blood flowed in his veins, and made the merry comment that he had had his share of the iron.

Exactly his reply of me to hear the story of his youth, including his romantic adventures in the Princess Olga, now Queen of Transylvania, and not permit the mere majesty of even so harmless a jest as I had offered him. But I did not forget my duty. Better to have him think me silly, for I saw that he was not seriously concerned than to face the deeper wrath which I was afraid would have been directed toward me if I had truthfully answered his question as to what I thought of his plan to have his son wed the daughter of the Princess Olga.

Not that I expected to remain silent upon that point. I meant to protest, and that vigorously, as well as to do everything in my power to thwart his plan, for I felt it could bring only misery to four people: Mary Harrison, Princess Olga, Noel Verblon and Prince Georges. But I meant to justify the appellation of Machiavellian which he himself had given me, in my dealing with that delicate problem, and as a first step I looked up with carefully simulated confusion at his frowning face.

"Please forgive me," I said before he could speak. "I should not have phrased that thought as a jest. It really is too sacred a matter to be treated lightly. I am sorry."

His frown vanished and he looked down at me with eyes that twinkled in embarrassing comprehension of my thoughts.

"No, you are not sorry at all," he said. "If you will excuse so unparaphrased a contradiction of your assertion. You simply are trying to get out of replying to the question I asked you. But I do not need your answer to know that you disapprove of my plan. Your sympathies, unfortunately, are enlisted in the extremely youthful, ephemeral, and undesirable affair between my young son and Mary Harrison."

It was my turn to frown. Was it possible that in his ridiculous longings to appease the thwarted vanity of his youth he considered Mary a clean American ancestry to be inferior to that of his son with his background of illegitimacy?

He put up a protesting and understanding hand as he saw the distaste in my face.

"You mustn't misunderstand me," he said. "It is no disapproval of Mary which prompts my actions. And I am fully conscious of the superiority of her unsullied ancestry to that of my poor boy. But Noel is my son, and I am sure some day will share my bitterness at the deal which Fate has given him. If I can give him back part of his heritage by a marriage with the Princess of Transylvania, I must do it. Was the man blind that he could not see of what different fibre Noel was made? He had told me but a few minutes before of the 'gentle, loving girl,' Noel's mother, who had brought 'comfort, dignity and beauty' into his life. There was the boy's heritage, not the arrogance and silly, childish ambitions which were perverting Philip Verblon's usually clear judgment."

He did not give me a chance to reply even if I had wished to do so, and I guessed that for the present he was willing to waive the opinion of his course for which he had asked. Still standing he put a quick, rare question. "Have you any remote idea of the nature of the danger menacing the Princess?"

"Nothing definite enough to put into words," I ended. "I am hoping that she herself soon will tell me what is alarming her."

"Then there is nothing I can do but see that she is safeguarded every hour of the day."

"That, of itself, is a tremendous undertaking," I smiled. "It is one that will be fulfilled," he declared didactically. "And now," softening his tone, and holding out his hand in farewell, "I must go and deploy my defenders—I trust I have the right jargon. Au revoir until tomorrow when I will report anything unusual in our night's watch. Please do not score my plan too harshly and—disabuse your mind of the notion that I am still in love with the Queen of Transylvania, or, indeed, with any other woman except—but this time—"

He was out of the room before I could rise from my chair, leaving me

Stom Stubbard Indigestion and Chronic Stomach Distress

Bradley's Drug Store Makes This Offer

Money Back If One Bottle of Dare's Mentha Pepsin Doesn't Do You More Good Than Anything You've Ever Used

At last the way has been found to combine Pepsin with other corrective stomach agents so that it will do the most good in the shortest possible time.

Why bother with slow actors when one tablespoonful of this splendid and pleasant liquid remedy will cause gas, bloating, heaviness, heartburn or any upset condition of the stomach to speedily vanish?

And why should any man or woman suffer another hour with indigestion or any stomach misery when the remedy that acts almost instantly can be easily procured?

Dare's Mentha Pepsin not only quickly relieves stomach distress, but it also conquers stubborn indigestion and dyspepsia, and puts an end to nervousness, headache, sleeplessness and drowsiness which distressing troubles are nearly always caused by chronic stomach disturbance.

Dare's Mentha Pepsin is pleasant to take, has a delightfully refreshing taste and after it has put your stomach in a clean and healthy condition, just notice how much better you look and feel, for besides correcting chronic stomach disorders this supremely good remedy that Bradley's Drug Store and druggists everywhere guarantee, is a little thing that builds you up and makes you work with vim, eat with relish and sleep soundly—Adv.

Why suffer with Rheumatism?

You know it cannot be rubbed away

ARE you one of those unfortunate who suffer with pains in your muscles and joints, commonly called rheumatism, making you miserable, less efficient, interfering with your working hours, ruining your sleep?

You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.?

For more than 100 years S.S.S. has been giving relief in thousands of cases, as testified to in unsolicited letters of gratitude.

"I suffered with rheumatism for a good many years. At times my joints would swell so, I couldn't walk. I tried almost everything. Went to Hot Springs, making you miserable, less efficient, interfering with your working hours, ruining your sleep."

Finally, it makes child-birth a joy! Three generations of mothers have praised Mother's Friend. Mrs. L. H. Hendrix, Greenwood, Okla., writes: "I used Mother's Friend with all my babies and I think it is the greatest help that has ever been discovered for expectant mothers."

Start using Mother's Friend tonight—the sooner the better, and write for free booklet on "Things to Know Before Baby Comes" (sent in plain envelope). Mother's Friend is sold by all drug stores.

All drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. But the larger size is in better demand.

LOCAL GARAGE FIRE CAUSES $500 LOSS

N. State-st Building and Two Machines Damaged by Flames

Fire thought to have started from defective wiring in a Chevrolet coupe belonging to Harold Smith, practically destroyed a two-car garage and badly damaged two automobiles, at the home of James Smith, 191 N. State-st., at 11:25 o'clock this morning. The loss is estimated at $500, partly covered by insurance.

The rear end and seat of a Ford coupe belonging to Charles Oiler, which occupied the second stall in the garage, was badly burned, while the Chevrolet was practically destroyed. No insurance was carried on the Chevrolet, but the loss to the Ford is covered. When discovered by a neighbor the gasoline tank of the Chevrolet had exploded and the building was a mass of flames. Firemen from the No. 2 station responded to a call sent in by members of the Smith family and the blaze was subdued after the roof had been burned from the building and the two cars partially destroyed.

Smith told Fire Chief McFarland that when he had parked the Chevrolet in the garage at about 2 o'clock he had noticed nothing wrong. It is believed the fire started just a short time later, but the fire was confined to the interior of the car until the gasoline tank was reached, when the burning liquid sprayed over the interior of the building and converted it into a furnace.

OPERATORS TO SEEK FURTHER REDUCTION

Mines of Ohio and Pennsylvania Lose Out in Supreme Court Appeal

Cleveland, April 19—S. H. Roberts, president of the Ohio Coal Operators' Association, today expressed the hope that Ohio and Pennsylvania bituminous coal operators might be able to fight the 20-cent lower freight rates, effective for southern fields after April 21, by receiving a further reduction from railroads serving them.

That such a plan had been suggested, Roberts admitted, but he declared he was not optimistic enough to expect such a reduction. Tuesday the U. S. Supreme Court refused to grant a stay on an injunction handed down by a southern Federal court which neutralized the Interstate Commerce Commission reduction of rates, and, according to Ohio operators, gave advantage to southern fields.

BIDDING THE LAST FAREWELL

WHEN a departed one is laid to rest it is an occasion of more than merely vacating that loved one's place here on earth. There belongs a farther thought than only that; a more precious responsibility, a kindlier regard. The funeral is expression of your very last farewell; deserving of fondest consideration: beyond courtesy, respect and custom alone. The funeral service you select should be the most expressive. Engaging the mortician is particularly important to that required end. Our method and manner of funeral attention includes every evidence of higher thought, so effective, so expressive and satisfying: at the same time no greater in cost than is ordinarily charged.

Weak Legs Stopped Comeback, Jack Dempsey Tells Writer

By FRANK G. MENKE

"Going to fight again?"

"No, sir, never," replied Jack Dempsey, with a great display of earnestness.

A telephone bell jangled. Dempsey answered it, carried on and resumed a conversation—and resumed—

"You can say it as strong as you like that I'll never fight again."

Dempsey paused—

"Hear anything about Dempsey?"

"Those who have seen him in a few workouts say he is a bit heavier and seems slower, which is only natural after the long lay-off."

Maybe Old Age

"Yeah," moved Dempsey, "that's interesting. Maybe old age is getting him, too. They say so, don't they?"

"What are your immediate plans?"

"I've been offered a few theatrical jobs—but I'm no actor," replied Dempsey. "I'd rather fight than act. And they say Tunney's sort of showed up, eh?"

"Saw you know he wasn't so much faster than I was in Chicago. He was more durable—that's the thing that decided the issue. His legs were good enough to carry him right along to the window, without buckling under him."

But mine went blooze in the latter part of the seventh.

Legs Fall Jack

"Legs were quite okay when I came out for the seventh. Then I landed right and Tunney went down. When he got up I started after him. Then I discovered that I had lost my fighting legs."

"First thing that happens to a fellow when he starts down from the peak is that he slows up a little. Then he slows up plenty."

Then his legs go. That's what happened in Chicago. It was the bum legs I carried into that luncheon fight—or, rather, the bum legs that I carried out of it—that convinced me I was through."

"Without legs a fighter isn't a fighter—he just becomes a punching bag."

"But," I put in, "couldn't you build up and strengthen your legs by doing from 10 to 15 miles a day on the road instead of doing short runs as you did in Chicago and Atlantic City."

Might Come Back

"Yes," said Dempsey, "I might be done. Corbett said he was the age of 34. Fitz said he was in great shape until he was 40. I could get the legs back by something like the old conditioners, hey, what do I say? Well, I mean I'm all through fighting—for all time."

Two months of nothing but shadow boxing, merely a week of boxing so as to get your eyes used up for sharpshooting—what shape would that put you in?"

"Great," declared Dempsey. "That one week of boxing—good idea that. It's the boxing one takes in boxing practice that ruins a fellow more than fights. I always was a glutton for boxing before fights. One of the reasons why I'm saying 'never again' is because I don't want to go through a month or six weeks of banging sparring partners—and getting banged myself."

"Only one week of boxing—that's a good notion. And—but—well, I'm all done with fighting."

"That's final!"

"Sure—finally—absolutely final," insisted Dempsey. "But, of course—well, it's final."

And then Dempsey winked.

Tris Speaker Is Poor Investment

Former Cleveland Player Surprises Fans by Not Being Big Aid to Connie Mack's Athletics; Early Season Form Not Permanent, However

By DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, April 19—Executing the long-sitting-standing dive into the sea of statistics from a very difficult angle, the writer discovered today that Tris Speaker has been paying off his $300,000 investment to Connie Mack in Cleveland, which I understand to be the average word for nothing or somewhat less. It was pleasing to note that Tris Speaker yesterday since, otherwise, he would be hitting a slug fitting six and seven-eighths. If you insist upon being unpleasant about it, the unofficial figure is .111. It was only a week ago that the intelligentist delivered itself of the pronouncement that Speaker would be a big help to the Athletics this season.

Two Hits Each Day

Meantime, Ty Cobb, the other $300,000 investment in Philadelphia, has found it almost impossible to average more than two hits a game. He was having a mere .412 in the unofficial figure today. It was only a week ago that the intelligentist delivered itself of the dictum that the society for the prevention of cruelty to spectators ought to have Ty abated as a public nuisance or something.

April form, of course, is somewhat less permanent than April sunburn and, anyway, the prize exhibits of the national pastime have had their averages in these playing tag with Speaker's, not Cobb's. In fact, only three of them, exclusive of Ty, are hitting above .300 today. They are Paul Waner, who is clocked in .350; Rogers Hornsby, who barely managed to rise above the dead line by getting two hits yesterday, and Lou Gehrig, who is running wild after a base hit famine in the south. His average today, .471, tops the field.

Other Stars Poor

Harry Heilmann, 1927 batting champion in the American League, is trundling along at .233. Bob Fothergill, third in the same contest, was obliging with a natty .190 when they lifted him tenderly out of the Detroit lineup several days ago. The best his temporary successor, Easterling, has been able to do is six hits out of his first eight times up.

It can't be said, either, that Kiki Cuyler has not around yet to the matter of making Barney Dreyfuss weep bitterly in his beard. Cuyler lifted his average from .250 to .267 yesterday. And what of George Ruth, alias Herman, the boy friend himself? Well, George or Herman or both is neither depressing nor exhilarating his dear public. His average today is .286 and not a home run to date.

Yankee Castoff Is Big Star Now

Lefty O'Doul Is Leading Gate Attraction, Giving Giants Victory Over Phillies with Two Home Runs; Was Converted from Pitcher into Fielder

New York, April 19—Frank (Lefty) O'Doul, who wasn't good enough to make the grade with the New York Yankees several years ago, is now a leading gate attraction in the camp of their rivals, the New York Giants. The California Irishman is the new idol of Gotham fans today as the result of his feat in hitting two mighty home runs yesterday, which gave the Giants a 5 to 1 victory over the Phillies.

O'Doul, like Babe Ruth, was converted from a pitcher into an outfielder because of his hitting.

Six Boston errors and effective pitching by Dizzy Vance enabled Brooklyn to swamp the Braves, 10 to 5, and jump to second place.

The Cubs lost their first home game to Cincinnati, 9 to 6. A home run by pinch hitter Webb, his third of the season, enabled Chicago to overcome a four-run lead, but the Reds won in the ninth on George Kelly's double with two on.

Waite Hoot pitched the Yanks to a 10 to 7 triumph over the Red Sox.

Cleveland beat the White Sox 7 to 1 in the Forest City inaugural. Joe Shantz curved the Sox to death while his mates rounded Adkins.

The Athletics cemented their hold on last place by losing to Washington, 11 to 6. A homer by Fox with two on failed to stem the tide.

St. Louis Browns, disappointed the fans by losing their home inaugural to Detroit, 4 to 1. Ownie Carroll, Tiger hurler, flashed form. Paul Eastering, Detroit rookie from Seattle who is leading the league in batting, hit the longest home run ever made at the park.

Blindfolded . . . in scientific test of leading Cigarettes, W. T. Benda selects Old Gold

W. T. Benda, in his studio, while test was being made. In background may be seen some of the famous Benda masks.

Old Gold

"I have been an inveterate cigarette smoker for years and my interest in cigarettes not only induced me to make this blindfold test, but to make it three times in succession.

"Each time I selected the same cigarette—OLD GOLD.

"However, there was no other choice that I could honestly make. OLD GOLD was so superior and its delicacy of aroma, its rich, full flavor so entirely free from any hint of sting or burn that it immediately appealed to my taste.

"Since the test I have been smoking OLD GOLDS steadily and I find that they are the most satisfying cigarettes I have ever smoked."

W. T. Benda

How Test Was Made

Mr. Benda was blindfolded, and, in the presence of two responsible witnesses, was given one each of the four leading cigarettes to smoke. To clear the taste, coffee was served before each cigarette. Mr. Benda was unaware of the identity of these cigarettes during test. After smoking the first cigarette, he was asked to designate by number his choice. He replied, "That was OLD GOLD."

Only the smoothness of the cigarette, when you select it, tells you why you select it.

SERVICE

THE Marion Star has recently made a connection with the Columbus Mutual Life Insurance Company of Columbus, Ohio, whereby it is able to offer all its old and new subscribers an accident policy covering ALL accidents AT HOME, AT WORK, AT PLAY, OR WHILE TRAVELING. The selection of this policy was made after a careful study of all newspaper insurance policies. It is the most liberal accident policy offered newspaper subscribers today.

WE ask you not to confuse this NEW TYPE of accident insurance with the "Travel Accident" policies offered newspaper subscribers. The new policy is much broader in its scope and covers accidents that happen AT YOUR HOMES, AT YOUR WORK, AT PLAY as well as accidents that happen while you are traveling. Remember, a "travel accident" policy covers only travel and traffic accidents! This new plan gives you 24 hours a day protection, as provided in the policy.

IT is a pleasure to be able to provide our subscribers in this territory with adequate protection that all can afford. Each policy costs our subscribers $1.50 a year and may be renewed year after year for the same cost. Age limit 15 to 70 years. No profit is realized by The Marion Star for this service. Mailing of the policies, supervising claims, etc. is paid for by the newspaper. The policies are purchased in large quantities direct from one of the strongest insurance companies in America, thereby eliminating commissions to agents, etc. Our representatives receive their pay for circulation work. They are not paid for selling insurance. Use the coupon or phone our office today
